IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PARKING AROUND NORMAN RESERVE DURING THE 2007/2008 BASEBALL SEASON

THE HOME OF THE MIGHTY SAINTS

The Sturt Baseball Club would appreciate distribution of this information to all who visit the club throughout the 2007/2008 Baseball Season.

Prepared October 2007

Sturt Baseball Club and Mitcham Council working together

Message from the Saints Baseball Club President: Phil Robinson

The Sturt Baseball Club and the City of Mitcham have agreed to work together to advise prospective parkers attending baseball activities at Norman Reserve to park appropriately and within the Australian Road Rule requirements.

The following information is provided to help you understand the various signage displayed, and general rules that apply in the area surrounding Norman Reserve.

The Sturt Baseball Club and the City of Mitcham asks for your co-operation on this matter.

Council's Ranger Service will maintain a presence to ensure parking compliance is managed.

Health and safety of all community members is seen by the Baseball Club and Council as very important. We ask that all visitors to Norman Reserve park legally and obey liquor licensing and smoking provision laws.

The Sturt Baseball Club hopes that the 2007/2008 Baseball Season is successful and enjoyable for all.
